

Stability and Integration:
Legal Developments in Asia

WORKSHOP PROGRAM

9:30 – 9:45 AM	Registration
9:45 – 10 AM	Welcoming Remarks Chulwoo Lee Director, Institute for Legal Studies, Yonsei University
MORNING SESSION Chair: Joe Phillips Yonsei University
10:00 – 11:00 AM	Learning from Afghanistan: Should the Debate about Consociationalist vs Incentivist Government for Divided Society be Reframed as a Question of Sequencing? Clark Lombardi University of Washington School of Law The Dawn of Legal Education in Bhutan David S. Law Washington University in St Louis School of Law/The University of Hong Kong Faculty of Law
11:00 – 11:30 AM	Comments Patricia Goedde Sungkyunkwan University School of Law
11:30 AM – 12 NOON	Presenters' Responses
12 NOON – 12:30 PM	Open Floor Discussion
12:30 – 2 PM	Lunch

AFTERNOON SESSION Chair: Chaihark Hahm Yonsei University
2 – 3:30 PM	Re-Norming for Relevance? An Appraisal of the ASEAN Charter in Shaping a Shared Regional Understanding of Sovereignty Eugene Tan Singapore Management University School of Law Courts as Democracy Builders in Asia Po Jen Yap The University of Hong Kong Faculty of Law Asia-Pacific Interests in the Emerging Arctic Christopher Rossi University of Iowa College of Law
3:30 – 4:15 PM	Comments Woo-Young Rhee Seoul National University School of Law Robert Rhee University of Florida College of Law
4:15 – 5 PM	Presenters' Responses
5 – 5:45 PM	Open Floor Discussion
5:45 PM – 6 PM	Closing Remarks Chaihark Hahm Editor-in-Chief, Yonsei Law Journal
6:15 – 8 PM	Dinner