

Notice of the Graduation Ceremony (2021. 8.)

On behalf of Yonsei University graduate school, it is a pleasure and honor to award you your degree. Congratulations upon your academic achievements.

In terms of upcoming graduation ceremony, we would like to notice that the commencement will be replaced with an online video due to the Covid-19 pandemic. The video will be available on the Yonsei University official website and official YouTube channel from 27nd of August.

The ceremony gown rental and diploma distribution will proceed as expected for eight days. You need to book a time slot in order to prevent congestion and distribute the number of people. Please find the detailed information in the below section. If you are unable to visit within the specified period, you can receive the degree certificate at the Graduate School administration office, Stimson Hall. Please understand that this is an inevitable measure for the safety of all the students.

1. Check the prospective degree recipient of August 2021
